ORDER

JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that oral argument in this matter, previously scheduled for July 6, 2023, is ADJOURNED to July 20, 2023, at 10:15 a.m. Oral argument will still be held in person in Courtroom 1105 of the Thurgood Marshall Courthouse, 40 Centre Street, New York, New York. If any party has an unmovable conflict with the new date and time, the parties should immediately confer and file a joint letter to that effect, proposing other dates and times during the weeks of July 17th and July 24th that would work for all parties.

Each side should anticipate being allotted a cumulative total of approximately sixty minutes. The Court approves the parties' request to address the class certification and Daubert motions in "integrated" fashion. See ECF No. 445. That said, the parties should not necessarily plan on uninterrupted "presentations," id., as there is likely to be back and forth at the Court's direction and the Court is likely to interrupt with questions. To assist the parties in preparing, the Court may issue an additional Order next week identifying issues and questions that the parties should be prepared to address during the oral argument.

SO ORDERED.
